

Newsletter

Friday 12th September

A brief newsletter this week, but lots of attachments. Thank you so much to parents who were able to attend our welcome meeting this week. I hope you found the session useful and informative.

I have attached the following documents for all parents:

- Copy of presentation
- Parent diary dates
- Class newsletters
- Behaviour policy

We are very excited about the year ahead and developments.

More exciting news...

We'd also like to share that Miss Clackworthy is having a baby! We are all so excited and happy for her and her partner!

Ms Gillion

Our first community event this year was a huge success! Thank you to Sennen Market for collaborating with us. The children thoroughly enjoyed creating our sea themed art. It created a real buzz at the market on Tuesday. The committee and stall holders found it so hard to pick our highly commended winners.

Congratulations to:

Aven Muir
Della Bloomfield-Crowe
Alabama Sim
Lily Matthews
Chloe Cannan
Felicity Rowell-Darling
Yogi Jelbert
Clay Hitchens
Darci Griffith

Ms Gillion also took some children to visit the market. She was so proud when one market visitor, a teacher from America, stopped to say how wonderfully polite and well behaved the children were....we know this but so lovely to have someone else notice.

The children were also very good at getting Miss Gillion to spend lots!...we resisted the cakes but bought some delicious jam, lemon curd and fresh bread. This was then shared in Cowloe class. We will do the same with different children and classes through the year.
